

About Us...

Giving HOPE Family Services is a company founded on the desire to provide individuals residing in the Commonwealth of Virginia with quality mental health skill-building services.

Giving HOPE Family Services provides skill-building services to both men and women between the ages of twenty-one (21) and sixty-five (65).

Individuals receiving services from Giving HOPE Family Services are assigned a specialized counselor who works closely with the client and their family to develop his/her Individualized Service Plan (ISP). The ISP is tailored to address the client's specific and unique needs.

Our counselors provide training, support and assistance to the client with managing and complying with medication regimens, accessing community resources, learning basic life and independent living skills, acquiring appropriate social skills, minimizing social isolation and gaining personal autonomy.

Program Description

Giving HOPE Family Services provides direct skill-building services to individuals between the ages of 21 and 65 who are at risk of hospitalization, homelessness or social isolation due to mental, behavioral, or emotional illness with significant functional limitations.

The primary goal of this program is to preserve the family unit and prevent unnecessary placement of the individual out-side of their homes and/or their home community.

Our core principals are built around client preferences, choices, values, and individual strengths. Our services are built around the natural support system of the individual and their community.
